

Efstratios Avagianos

Web Developer

Hi, I'm Stratis! I'm a 24-year-old junior-mid and i am Front-end and Unity Developer. I've successfully built and implemented various software applications, and I'm adept at working with APIs to complete ambitious projects. My passion, attention to detail, and fresh perspective set me apart. Right now, I'm looking for my next job position as a Front-End Developer.

PERSONAL PROJECTS

ReLeaf Website (04/2023 - Present)

- ReLeaf is an under development philanthropy organization. I have completely designed the website(not yet published) and added a lot of features to make it look stylish and modern.

Travel Blog Website (02/2023 - Present)

- Stravel Blog is a travel-focused sited, built with HTML, CSS, and JS. It features modern technologies like Bootstrap and a parallax scrolling landing page. Although still in development, it's hosted on my Raspberry Pi via DDNS, using Node.js and a reverse proxy with NGINX.

MyResume

- Currently I'm building a fully interactable website for my resume. Soon to be deployed online
